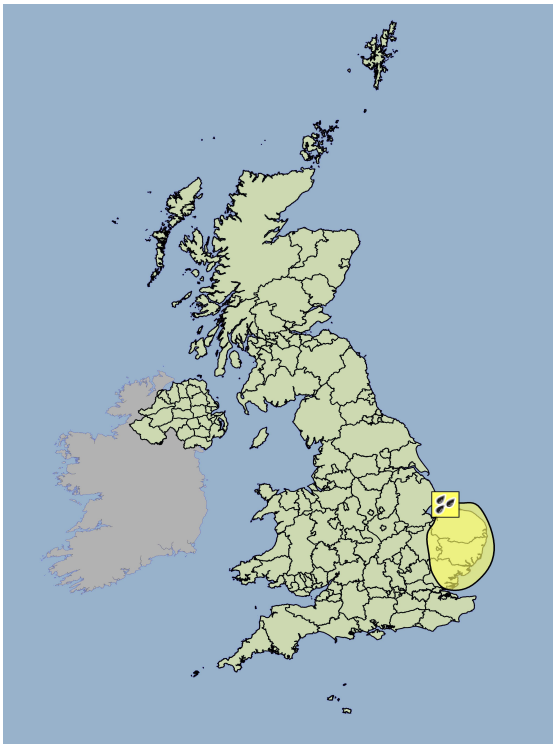
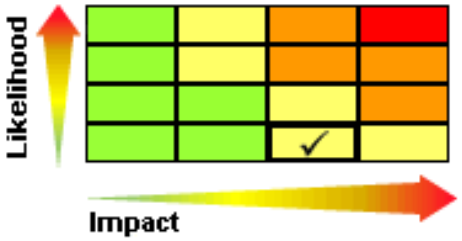
National Severe Weather Warning Service





Chief Forecasters Assessment
A line of thunderstorms is currently bringing locally very heavy rain with 15-25 mm of rain falling within an hour in a few places. These will move eastwards, but there is the possibility of further thundery downpours developing overnight.

The Met Office have issued a Yellow Warning of Rain

Valid from 21:35 on Sat, 12th Jul 2014 until 07:00 on Sun, 13th Jul 2014

Heavy showers and thunderstorms will continue to move east across East Anglia during the next couple of hours, with a risk of further isolated thunderstorms developing overnight.

The public should be aware that localised downpours could lead to temporary surface water flooding.
